

Invitation - Work: No Child's Business multi-stakeholder symposium

Child labour in supply chains and production countries: working together for a sustainable solution

During the symposium, representatives from government, business and civil society will discuss action steps to effectively end child labour and instead provide sustainable alternatives for children and their families.

Only by working together we can offer durable solutions to child labour. We would really appreciate your participation!

Programme:

Keynote speakers | Panel discussion |
Interactive breakout sessions around:

- Fighting child labour sustainably with local partners: results from India, Cote d'Ivoire and Vietnam
- Meaningful stakeholder dialogue with civil society organisations and companies in high-risk sectors
- From new due diligence legislation to effective action against child labour in supply chains and producing countries

... and more.

Afterwards, there is an opportunity to mingle & meet at a festive networking reception.

The detailed programme with speakers will follow after registration.

Thursday 10 October
13:00-17:00
The Social Hub
Hoefkade 9 | The Hague

The Symposium will be in English.

RSVP: Please register by sending an email to: symposium@wncb.org with the name and organisation of the attendee(s)

Work: No Child's Business is an alliance of UNICEF The Netherlands, Save the Children and the Stop Child Labour Coalition. WNCB aims to achieve that children and young people are free from child labour and attend school, together with partners and country offices in Côte d'Ivoire, India, Jordan, Mali, Uganda and Vietnam. www.wncb.org

unicef for every child

With support of

