SummaryProduct

Cocoon muslin children's bathrobe (Little Barine)

Issue

Consumer products » Flammability hazard

What to do

Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled product and contact the company for a refund.

Affected products

This recall involves the cocoon muslin children's bathrobe (Little Barine).

100% cotton in white, canyon, indigo, grey, curry, celadon and rugby tan. Sizes 18–24 months, 2-3 years, 3–4 years, and 4–5 years. Label: Barine.

Issue

The recalled product does not meet the flammability requirements for children’s sleepwear of the Children’s Sleepwear Regulations.

Loose-fitting children’s sleepwear can contact ignition sources such as stove elements, candles, and matches more readily than tight-fitting sleepwear, and once ignited will burn rapidly, potentially resulting in severe burns to large areas of the child’s body.

As of November 22, 2021, the company has received no reports of incidents or injuries in Canada.

What are the defects?

The holes in the internal mesh of the swim shorts are too large.

The swim shorts' drawstring is too long.

What are the hazards?

A child's genitals may become stuck in the holes in the internal mesh of the swim shorts, causing injury. The drawstring also poses an entrapment hazard.

What should consumers do?

Consumers should stop using the swim shorts and return them to the place of purchase for a full refund, including postage.
